

Gunstock Mountain

Historic Preservation Society

Membership Application

Gunstock Mountain Historic Preservation Society is a 501(c)3 organization that welcomes all individuals who are interested in helping the society preserve this delicate and important history in the Lakes Region of New Hampshire.

The task of preserving this history is never-ending. The society needs the support of individuals like you who can help us restore Gunstock's historic ski jumps, organize and digitize the recreation area's impressive archives, and continue to raise public awareness of the need for the preservation of this significant history.

The society welcomes new members, and is always seeking new volunteers, as well. If you are interested in helping GMHPS in its mission as a volunteer, feel free to contact us!
